RUBBER DOGNUT

A thick rubber toy that survives even the strongest power chewer.

Toys made from rubber were significantly more resistant to wear than other materials.

However, if your pup can destroy a toy in minutes, tearing it to shreds, then it is time to upgrade to something that will last a little longer.

However, this Rubber Dog nut is too heavy for small dogs to carry around.

This rubber dog nut toy is as close to unbreakable as a dog toy can be. They are designed to hold up to aggressive dogs that play rough. Now, this is not to say that these toys are unbreakable, but they certainly last longer than other toys designed for the same purpose.

Weight : 400 Grams Approx.

IDEAL FOR MEDIUM & LARGE BREEDS.

dog toys

All of these toys have a multitude of benefits for your pets. By giving them an interactive toy, you know that they'll be having the time of their life at home. It's important especially if you're picking up a toy with treats that you leave loads of drinking water for them too. Finally, when you do return home to their big eyes and waggly tail make sure you give them loads of praise and if you can spare some time to take them on a walk to the park. Remember your whole day might have been busy but their whole day is spent just waiting for you.
